

CROSSWORD

Rudrajit Paul

Department of Critical Care Medicine, Institute of Postgraduate Medical Education and Research and Seth Sukhlal Karnani Memorial Hospital, Kolkata, West Bengal, India

1		2				3		4		5
					6
7				8				9
				10
		11	12				13	14
	15					16
17		18			19		20			21
				22
23		24		25				16
27						28

CLUES

Across:

- Longest bone in the body.
- This suffix is added to brand names of medicines to signify increased amount.
- Treatment of diarrhoea.
- Inflammatory marker in blood.
- Degree in gynaecology.
- Momentary neurological dysfunction.
- Measure of association in a case-control study.
- The short form of a parameter measured during echocardiography.
- Sequelae of measles.
- Pantoprazole is used to treat ___ peptic disorder.
- Abbreviation of a type of arrhythmia.
- Short form for a common vaccine.
- The main source of guidelines for blood cancers.
- One of the fluid compartments in our body.
- Name of the condition where multiple sclerosis has only radiological manifestation.
- ___ reflex.
- One bone of inferior extremity.
- Lowest point of a curve.

Down:

- ___ bite causes gangrene of fingers.
- A type of auto-inflammatory disease.
- A type of pigment cell in the retina.
- Commonest cause of UTI.
- To check power of distal muscles, we check _____ strength.
- Imaging modality of choice for thoracic pathology.
- Complication of obesity.
- Amount of plasma perfusing the kidneys per unit time.
- Treatment for depression.
- To stay ___ is the main aim of preventive health.
- A type of connective tissue disorder.
- A new syndrome, akin to fibromyalgia.
- Aspergillus _____.
- A type of valvular heart disease.
- Short form for a diagnostic procedure in thorax.
- Antibody tested in diabetes.